

Roberto Merrill

Roberto Merrill is the spokesperson for the basic income movement in Portugal and coordinates the 2017 BIEN congress. He teaches moral and political philosophy at the University of Minho, where he does research at the Centre for Ethics, Politics & Society. He is also an associate researcher at CEVIPOF (Sciences Po-Paris). Currently he is writing a book with Sara Bizarro, Gonalo Marcelo and Jorge Pinto on basic income. His last co-edited book (with Daniel Weinstock) was on Political Neutrality: a Re-evaluation (Palgrave Macmillan, 2014). He believes the debate about basic income is an important and stimulating debate regarding the Welfare State.
